Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a list or account, written on the right page of an open manuscript.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document, written on aged paper. The text is arranged in several lines, starting from the top right and moving downwards. The characters are dark and somewhat faded, typical of old ink on paper. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher without a key or context.

The reverse side of the page is mostly blank, showing the texture of the aged paper and some faint, illegible markings or bleed-through from the other side. There are a few small dark spots and a faint vertical line near the left edge, possibly from the binding or a previous page.
