1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out blanket of snow, wrapping around me and filling my lungs with a clean, invigorating freshness. The sun shined brightly, casting long, golden rays across the vast, open landscape.

 The horizon was a soft, hazy line, and the sky above was a deep, clear blue.

The first of these is the fact that the population of the country is increasing rapidly. This is due to a number of causes, including the discovery of gold and silver, and the influx of immigrants from Europe and America. The second cause is the discovery of new lands, which are being settled by the government.
 The third cause is the discovery of new resources, such as coal and iron. The fourth cause is the discovery of new markets, which are being opened up to the country.
 The fifth cause is the discovery of new technologies, which are being used to improve the country's economy. The sixth cause is the discovery of new laws, which are being enacted to protect the country's interests. The seventh cause is the discovery of new customs, which are being adopted by the country. The eighth cause is the discovery of new traditions, which are being followed by the country. The ninth cause is the discovery of new customs, which are being adopted by the country.
 The tenth cause is the discovery of new traditions, which are being followed by the country.
