The first part of the book is devoted to a history of the country from the time of the first settlement to the present. It is a very interesting and well written account of the progress of the colony and the growth of the population. The author has done his work thoroughly and has given us a very complete and accurate history of the country.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a list or account. The text is written in dark ink on aged paper. It appears to be a list of items or transactions, possibly related to a household or a business. The entries are separated by lines, and some words are written in a larger, bolder hand, possibly indicating headings or important items. The text is somewhat faded and difficult to read in some places due to the age and the style of the handwriting.
